Dear Parents, Grandparents and Guardians,

As you know our Book Fair will be arriving in school soon, with hundreds of new children's books to browse and buy.

The children will also have an opportunity to bring in money and buy books during school time. This will happen in School on Thursday 30th November and Monday 4th December.

Could you make sure that money is brought into school either in a zipped wallet or a sealed envelope.

There are over 200 titles for your child to choose from, and with prices starting from only £2.99, there's sure to be a book for everyone.

If you would like to browse the selection of books available, click on the link www.bookfairs.scholastic.co.uk/bookcases

Don't forget that every book you buy can help to get FREE BOOKS for our school library!

We are also running a competition in school to create an exciting invitation to our school fair:

Children should design an invitation to the book fair which must include: venue, map, time, date, reason for celebration, things that must be brought to the event.

Think about who your invitation is for:

Possible target audiences: parents, teachers, other children, journalists, politicians ...

Try to include interesting book covers, exciting facts about different authors, quotes from your favourite books to entice people to buy more books.

Competition end date is Wednesday 29th November so get going! At the end of the day we will be giving our £5 vouchers to spend at the book fair as prizes.

Good luck!

Miss Thomas
