Dear Parents,

As of next week we will begin a new rota for changing books. Children will get two books per week and each group will have a set day when they can change their books. As a result, each child will only change their books once a week on the day stated below. Your child will be able to tell you what group they are in. The curriculum asks that children are familiar with many books so we feel that reading a book more than once can embed stories in our children's minds. This will in turn have a positive impact on their writing, spelling and creativity.

Monday - Superstars

Tuesday - Whizz Kids

Wednesday - Clever Cookies

Thursday - Genius gems

Friday - Bright Sparks

If you feel your child wants to read another book, please feel free to record any reading they complete from home books. All signatures count towards their rainbow reads!

Kind regards,

Miss Crich
