Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are in the period of post-Christmas. At this time of the year, we can feel sad at the end of the many festivities of the Christmas season. We are back to ordinary living and daily life takes over from the joyous occasion. The new year offers us a lot of opportunities to reflect on what might unfold in the near future. We may have planned and articulated many things to do in the coming months. The words of wisdom from Henri Nouwen may help us to move on each day of our ordinary lives. He quotes, "Each day holds a surprise. But only if we expect it can we see, hear, or feel it when it comes to us." Let's not be afraid to receive each day's surprise, whether it comes to us as sorrow or as joy. It will open a new place in our hearts, a place where we can welcome new friends and celebrate more fully our shared humanity." God Bless.

Fr. Wilfred Pereppadan SCJ

A Prayer for Yemen: Bishop Patrick has asked us all to pray for the human suffering in Yemen, one of the gravest humanitarian crises in the world today.

Giver of Life, who hears the cries from Yemen; of mothers choosing between medicine or food, of parents grieving children lost to starvation, of those who have given up everything in hunger. Hear our cries for hope, for change, for peace. In your mercy, break political dead-locks, soften hardened hearts, change closed minds, open unhearing ears. Let people come before power, let life be holy again. Let your justice and peace shape the nation of Yemen and the lives of all people. Amen.
