

CALLING CATHOLIC TEACHERS

Catholic teachers working outside of Catholic education

An invitation for you!

Teaching has an extraordinary moral depth and is one of humanity's excellent and creative activities, for the teacher does not write on inanimate material, but on the very spirits of human beings.

The Catholic School on the Threshold of the Third Millennium

If you are a Catholic teacher currently working outside of Catholic education, we'd love to meet you! Whether you have taught in a Catholic school before or not, we would like to invite you to find out more about the exciting and immensely rewarding opportunities in Catholic education within the Diocese of Nottingham, including the establishment of our new Catholic Multi-Academy Trusts.

Teaching in a Catholic school is not just a job, it is a vocation. For us, education is about far more than academic success, it is about the formation of the whole person.

This occasion is designed to provide information about how best to prepare for a role in a Catholic school and to answer any questions you may have. There will also be an opportunity to register for a mentoring programme for those senior leaders who wish to be accompanied and supported on their journey into Catholic education.

Date:

Wednesday 1 April 2020
